I) PLAYERS

1. PITCHERS may not pitch more than 12 outs in a single game. Outs do not have to be consecutive.
2. A DESIGNATED HITTER may be used only for a pitcher. The D.H. must be named in the starting lineup, if you choose to use one. Once the game has begun, you may not institute a D.H. If a D.H. enters the game as a position player, his team forfeits the D.H. for the remainder of the game.
3. A DESIGNATED RUNNER must be used for the catcher with two out. The D.R. will be a player not in the game.
4. A BASE RUNNER must always try to avoid contact. Head first slides are permitted.
5. For the purpose of the championship final, a coach may use one pitcher for 21 outs.

J) RE-ENTRY RULE FOR HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL

Any starting player may be substituted for and may re-enter the game, subject to the following provisions:

- 1) The re-entered player must return to their original spot in the batting order.
- 2) Only players listed on the original starting batting line-up are eligible for re-entry. A Starting Player's right to re-enter is not affected by any intervening substitutions.
- 3) Starting players may only re-enter once in a game.
- 4) When a player is injured and all available players have been used in the game, the opposing manager shall designate any remaining player to occupy the injured player's spot.
- 5) When a player is ejected and all available players have been used in the game, that team would forfeit the game under the provisions of the Official Rules of Baseball.
- 6) If an offensive player re-enters the game illegally, it shall be treated as Batting Out of Order and shall be governed by the provisions of Rule 6:07. If a defensive player re-enters illegally, the proper player shall replace him with no further penalty.

Pitching and the Re-Entry Rule

- 7) When a team elects to use a Designated Hitter, a substitute starting pitcher may not re-enter the game in any capacity because the pitcher is not listed in the starting batting order.
- 8) When a team elects not to use a Designated Hitter, a removed pitcher may re-enter to play another defensive position.

Lightning Rule:

No longer will umpires stop games for lightning. Under Environment Canada's guideline, "Thunder" is now the triggering factor. Once thunder is heard umpires will stop the game for 30 minutes. Each time there is thunder the clock restarts with another 30 minutes. The umpire takes control of the game 5 minutes before the game starts. So if he hears thunder at 2:55pm the game will not start until 30 minutes after that. Game curfews are not extended. Once the game is stopped, the onus is upon the individual to seek shelter. Players are required to go to vehicles or the clubhouse if there is one.
